My Promise to the World

- I will represent my country with pride and strive to leave a positive impression on everyone I meet by being courteous, considerate, and respectful at all times.

Staying Safe and Together

- I will seek approval from my group leader and have written consent from my parents or guardians if I plan to visit friends or family separately from the group.
- I will inform my group leader and tour director of my whereabouts and follow their instructions for a smooth and safe journey.

Making the Most of My Adventure

- I will stay informed about our daily schedule and actively participate in all planned activities, health permitting.
- I will embrace every moment with a positive and cooperative attitude to enrich both my experience and that of my fellow travelers.

Embracing New Experiences

- I will dive into the local cuisine with an open mind, eager to explore flavors beyond my comfort zone.
- I will respect local customs and dress codes, especially in places of worship and cultural significance.
- I will listen attentively to guides and speakers, ensuring I learn as much as possible and respect the learning opportunities of others.

Tech Etiquette

- I will use technology respectfully, understanding that certain moments are best experienced without the distraction of electronic devices.
